

Maria Laura Martorana

Soprano

Italian coloratura soprano Maria Laura Martorana is an eclectic performer of Baroque, belcanto and modern repertoire. She excelled in International Competitions, and she is singing from 2003 in prestigious Theaters such as La Scala in Milano, San Carlo in Napoli, Theater An der Wien, Halle, Versailles, in Operas and concerts under the baton of Abbado, Antonini, Curtis, Fasolis, Jurowski, Marcon, Rousset, Sardelli. Her most appreciated roles are Alcina and the Queen of the Night, as well as coloratura characters of the Neapolitan and Venetian eighteenth century. Maria Laura Martorana records for Sony, Brilliant Classics, Dynamic, CPO, Nuova Era, Virgin Classics musics by Mozart, Paisiello, Rossini, Porpora, Händel, Vivaldi, Cherubini, Sarro, Salieri.

Keen on studying ancient manuscripts, graduated in molecular Biology and researcher at the Institut Curie for two years, Maria Laura teaches Canto at the Conservatorio Tchaikovsky, loves portraiture photography and oil painting.

Jan 2018

info.marialauramartorana@gmail.com

www.marialauramartorana.com